Absentee In-House Voting Available for Registered Voters Who Qualify

(Louisville, KY) Jefferson County Clerk, Bobbie Holsclaw, has released dates for in-house absentee voting. Qualified registered voters in Jefferson County can vote their ballot at the Election Center April 15th through May 20th. Kentucky law allows people to vote at the Election Center prior to Election Day for the following reasons:

1. Person who due to age, disability, or illness will be unable to go to the polls on Election Day.
2. Voter who will be outside the county on Election Day.
3. Student who temporarily resides outside the county in which he/she is registered and who will be out of the county on Election Day.
4. Voter who is a member of the Armed Forces or a dependent of a member of the Armed Forces and who will be out of the county on Election Day.
5. Voter who is a member of the Armed Forces who will be confined to base within the county on Election Day and who learns of that confinement within 7 days or less of the election.
6. Voter who is a citizen residing overseas and will be out of the county on Election Day.
7. Voter or spouse of voter who has surgery scheduled that will require hospitalization on Election Day.
8. Precinct Election Officer serving in a precinct other than that in which he/she is registered or an Alternate Precinct Election Officer.
9. Member or any staff for the County Board of Elections; any deputy county clerk; any staff for the State Board of Elections.
10. A woman in her last trimester of pregnancy.
