Financial Review From Kentucky Auditor Of Public Accounts Finds Funds Fully Balanced In Most Recent Report

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (07/13/2022): Reflecting the stewardship of Jefferson County Clerk Bobbie Holsclaw, in the most recent assessment by Kentucky's Auditor of Public Accounts, the Jefferson County Clerk's Office was found to have accounted for every dollar of funding received and spent in 2020, balancing the yearly budget and showing the responsible handling of millions of dollars of taxpayer money.

"Fiscal responsibility is something I have always believed in as a public servant. It guides our daily work at the Clerk's Office," said Bobbie Holsclaw, Jefferson County Clerk. "This report is proof that good governance and accountability of taxpayer money isn't just a promise or a possibility, but a reality for our office. I am very proud of our team members, who have proven that ensuring the public's trust is their top priority."

In the independent state review, the auditor further found no instances of noncompliance and no material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting and operation.
