LOUISVILLE, Ky. (10/7/2024): The registration deadline for voting or updating voter information is October 7, 2024. First-time voters, those with a change of address, or those wanting to change their political party may complete a registration card and put it in the secure collection box before 4 p.m. local time today. They may also learn more about how to vote by mail, in-person absentee (excused and no-excuse) voting, and at the precinct locations on General Election Day, November 5.

"Every election matters and presidential elections draw an even larger turnout of voters eager to make their voices heard. We aim to guarantee that all eligible individuals can participate in the upcoming General Election on November 5th. We urge anyone wishing to vote to register by 4 PM. Our team is available to answer any questions and provide support to those who may encounter difficulties," stated Jefferson County Clerk Bobbie Holsclaw.

If voters are unable to go to a Motor Vehicle branch in person, they can register online by 4 p.m. local time at vrsws.sos.ky.gov/ovrweb. Voters can also register by mail by following the instructions at <https://elect.ky.gov/Voters/Pages/default.aspx> and making sure their registration is postmarked October 7.
